CAUSE

On May 12, 2009, the offender's father, Shane O'Neill confirmed that he and other family members would continue to be very supportive of the offender. However, family members of Nathan O'Neill want the offender to reside at the Residential Reentry Center (RRC), at Geiger Corrections Center in Spokane, Washington, when he is released from federal prison on June 23, 2009.

As a result, this officer contacted the offender at the Federal Correctional Institution (FCI), in Fort Worth, Texas, by telephone on May 15, 2009. The offender, in the presence of his Bureau of Prisons (BOP) case manager, Marilyn Marshall, and this officer on speaker telephone, explained to the offender in great detail what would be expected of him at the RRC. He was also provided a copy of the Probation Form 49, "Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions of Supervised Release," by his case manager. The offender informed this officer that he understood the modification to his conditions, that he had no further questions, and agreed to the added special condition for the RRC placement.

Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions of Probation/Supervised Release or Extend Term of Supervision

I have been advised and understand that I am entitled by law to a hearing and assistance of counsel before any unfavorable change may be made in my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or my period of supervision being extended. By "assistance of counsel," I understand that I have the right to be represented at the hearing by counsel of my own choosing if I am able to retain counsel. I also understand that I have the right to request the court to appoint counsel to represent me at such a hearing at no cost to myself if I am not able to retain counsel of my own choosing.

I hereby voluntarily waive my statutory right to a hearing and to assistance of counsel. I also agree to following modification of my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or to the proposed extension of my term of supervision:

To modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

- 21 You shall reside in a residential reentry center for a period of up to 180 days. This placement may include a prerelease component, day reporting, and home confinement (with or without electronic monitoring, but not to include GPS) at the directions of the CCM and USPO. You shall abide by the rules and requirements of the facility. You shall remain at the facility until discharged by the Court.
